

POSITION VACANCY

JOB TITLE: Sr. Financial Analyst
DEPARTMENT: Corporate Reporting & Analysis
SUPERVISES: None

GENERAL FUNCTION:

As a member of the Finance Corporate Reporting & Analysis team we are responsible for supporting the users for the reporting systems currently in use, enhancing the functionality of existing systems, integrating new and existing applications to streamline business processes, and develop easy-to-use user interfaces to new and existing applications.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Develop complex business reports/analysis leveraging Business Objects as well as other BI application; such as SAP & Hyperion cubes, Oracle databases and Bex.
2. Hyperion Planning administration
 - a. Responsible for security and user availability of the system and its source files.
 - b. Manage resources responsible for implementing maintenance and security protocols.
 - c. Provide user data training and as needed consultation for ad hoc analysis or modification to data cubes for delivering new solutions not in scope at onset.
3. Perform ad hoc analysis in any of the existing data sources to support any business understanding or support the development of enterprise solutions that support Luxottica Retail brands.
4. Develop processes that will maximize the efficiency of financial reporting tools or other mapping software required supporting enterprise financial and analytical solutions.

GENERAL SKILLS:

1. Interacts with user community to produce reporting requirements. Provide consulting to users of various data warehouses and advises users of the various data warehouses and advises users on conflicts and inappropriate data usage.
2. Demonstrated ability to establish proactive working relationships with business partners. Has ability to rapidly analyze their business needs and ensure that the applications are utilized to improve business processes.
3. Experience in managing or supporting the user security and application administration in BI or other reporting application.

EXPERIENCE:

Strong interpersonal, written and oral communication skills are a must.

Proven track record of providing analytical business solution ranging from ad hoc to major BI projects.

4-7 years analytical and business system solutions in retail, manufacturing or insurance.

Significant experience with Hyperion Planning, Business Objects, data mining and Excel applications.

EDUCATION:

Bachelor's Degree in Business Management, Finance or Accounting or equivalent. MBA preferred.

VACANCIES: 1 position